AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d of January, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREEAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, That the malignant and infectious Disease, of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania, within the United States of America, has totally ceased; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the Quarantine laid by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 18th Day of October, 1797, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods and Merchandize, arriving, or to arrive from Philadelphia, or any Port within the State of Pennsylvania, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the 18th Day of October, 1797, had not been made; any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding. — And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Fawcener.

Admiralty-Office, January 16, 1798.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Reynolds, Commander of His Majesty's Ship La Pomone, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Plymouth Sound, the 14th of January, 1798.

I Beg to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that in the Night of the 16th Ult. I lost Company with the Phoebe, in a very heavy Gale of Wind at W. S. W. which came on the 8th, and continued blowing strong without Intermission until the 24th, and, though the Violence of the Gale then abated, still it blew from the West; that with every possible Exertion we were unable to get farther to the Westward than 29 Degrees of Longitude before the 31st Ult. the Day on which my limited Time for cruising on the Ground prescribed by their Lordships expired.

On the 1st Instant I edged away to the Eastward, and on the 5th, at Eleven o'Clock in the Night, Ushant bearing N. 65 deg. E. 94 Leagues, crossed a large Ship, standing under easy Sail to the N. W. I instantly gave Chace, and soon got close alongside of her; for it being thick, hazy Weather she was deceived in our Strength, and shrunk not from the Action, but had the Temerity to exchange several Broadsides with us before she called out for Quarter; in which we had 1 Man killed and 4 wounded, and our Masts and Rigging considerably damaged, Having shifted the Prisoners, and our Carpenter plugged up Eight Shot-Holes she had received between Wind and Water, we were about to take her in Tow, (for her Mizzen Mast was shot away, and she was utterly disabled to carry any Sail) when the Officer on Board hailed us, and said she was sinking. I sent all our Boats to her Assistance immediately, and finding no Efforts could save her, had but just Time to draw our Men and their Wounded from her, when she sunk alongside of us. She proved to be the Cheri, from Nantz, carrying 26 long Twelve, Eighteen, and Twenty-four Pounds, (mixed) upon her Main Deck, and 230 Men, commanded by Mon. Chassin; had been out Fourteen Days, and taken nothing: She had 12 Men killed and 22 wounded; among among the latter was the gallant Captain, who, with Two others, died of their Wounds the next Day.

On Thursday Evening, the Eddystone bearing N. E. Twelve Leagues, I captured a little Privateer from Rosco, called the Emprunt Folle; had only 2 small Carriage Guns, 6 Swivels, and 25 Men on Board; she had been out but One Day, and had taken nothing.

Our Main Mast and Fore Mast being wounded, and both of them fished, and much of the Standing Rigging so injured that it is necessary to replace it, I thought it would be expediting the Service to steer directly for this Port, instead of Falmouth; and I hope my having done so will meet their Lordships Approbation.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Captain Stopford, of His Majesty's Ship Phaeton, to the Right Honorable Admiral Lord Bridport, dated at Sea, the 31st of December, 1797.

My Lord,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that, on the 29th Instant, His Majesty's Ship under my Command captured a French Brig Privateer, of 14 Six-Pounders, called L'Hazard, and also a Spanish Merchant Vessel, from Nantes, bound to St. Sebastian, laden with sundry Articles of Merchandize.

The former (by whom I send this Letter) sailed from La Rochelle Twenty-four Hours before her Capture; and was proceeding on a Cruize to the Southward; the latter being small, and of little Value, I destroyed.

The Anson parted Company the same Night, in Chace of a Ship that had the Appearance of a Corvette, and I have not seen her since.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROB. STOPPORD.

Whitehall, January 14, 1798.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Tuesday the 2d Instant a Straw-House, Cow-House, Fattening-House, some Pigsties, a Cart-Hovel, Part of Two Ricks of Hay, a Cow, and some Farming Utensils, (the Value of the whole of which is estimated at Two Hundred Pounds or upwards) were burnt on a Farm situated near the Town of Woburn in the County of Bedford, and in the Occupation of John Circuit, of the said Town; and that the said Premises were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

It has likewise been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Monday the 8th Instant, a thatched Workshop, situated in the Town of Woburn aforesaid, and in the Occupation of John Evans, Collar-Maker, was discovered to be on Fire; but that the Flames, having been timely perceived, were speedily extinguished by the Inhabitants of the said Town; and that in some Thatch which had been stripped off the said Shop a Piece of Cotton or fine Wool, mixed with Grease or Oil, was found, partly consumed.

And it has been further humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Tuesday the 9th Instant, a thatched Wood Barn, (containing Coals, Wood, old Paper, and other Articles susceptible of Fire) in the Occupation of Samuel Handscombe, and situated in the Town of Woburn aforesaid, was observed to be on Fire, but that, by the timely Exertions of the Populace, the same was got under before the Flames had made any considerable Progress; and that, from different concurring Circumstances, it was manifest, that the said Barn, as well as the thatched Workshop before mentioned, were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown, with a View to burn the Whole or the greatest Part of the said Town, which it is believed would have taken Effect, from the Nature and Position of the said Premises, the Direction of the Wind, and other Circumstances, if the Fire, in both Instances, had not been providentially discovered in Time to frustrate the wicked Designs of the Incendiaries who meditated the same.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to either of the said Premises) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town of Woburn to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Overseers of the said Town.

And, as a still further Encouragement, an additional Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is also hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

BEDFORD.
